SEIZE EVERY AVO-OPPORTUNITY.

Americans love avocados, any way they can get them. The fact is, we now consume hundreds of millions of pounds every year! Consumer interest in avocados is on the rise and opportunity is knocking at your door. As the largest producer of avocados in the world, Avocados From Mexico can help you capitalize on market demand with one of the most exciting, most thoughtfully executed partnership programs in the foodservice market today.

WHY AVOCADOS FROM MEXICO?

Mexico is the only place on earth where avocado trees naturally bloom four times a year. Its rich volcanic soil, abundant sunshine and timely rainfall provide the perfect microclimate for producing great-tasting, creamy avocados that are in season all year. Our rigorous quality control program assures that you're getting Hass Avocados From Mexico at the peak of perfection all year long!
